Ideas for the Summer

Oxbridge Intercultural Programmes

Recruitment: Tutors for 3-week residential English programme in South Korea

This programme will take place in Jinju Health College (JHC), a vocational training college located in Jinju, South Korea. The College has been providing vocational education to students (aged 18-25) from around the country for over 40 years. Every summer, the College offers a free summer English programme for 200 of its Korean students, designed and operated by a group of 40 Oxbridge students who volunteer as native English Tutors for this intensive one-month programme.

Benefits:

- FREE return flight to South Korea (with flexible return dates for your own travel afterwards)
- FULL accommodation + food during the programme
- Weekend Excursions (e.g trips to ancient capital of Korea , Templestay, etc.)

Requirements:

- Responsible and enthusiastic undergraduate student of any discipline (you need not hold any teaching qualification) who can bring the best of Oxbridge culture to the students of JHC: love of knowledge and innovative ways of learning.
- Full-time residential commitment to the teaching during the programme dates. Applicants must be able to depart from London on Wednesday 29th June 2016. The programme starts on Monday 4th July and ends on Saturday 23rd July.

You can apply by filling in our application form at <https://form.jotform.me/60172951601449>

The deadline is 13th February (12 noon) After reviewing your application, we will let you know by email whether or not you will be invited for an interview. Interviews will be held in Oxford on 25th and 26th February, and in Cambridge on 27th and 28th February. (TBC)

Adventurous Education: positions at Cambridge summer camp

Want to inspire Chinese teenagers over summer in Cambridge? Join us at Adventurous Education and lead our uniquely-Cambridge summer camps!

What can you get: 1. Generous scholarship to help you fund your accommodation and food. 2. Lifelong friendship with the students. You might potentially be the most inspiring teacher in their life! 3. An internship that truly stretches you to help you gain not only teaching skills, but also leadership and teamwork skills. 4. A good reason to stay in Cambridge!

Adventurous Education

Who we are: We are a team of Cambridge alumni and students with the vision of a world in which high quality educational resources are accessed and shared freely across the borders. As the first step, we have organised and run our first series of Summer Programmes for secondary school students from China in 2015 and received passionate feedback from the participants and their parents on our excellent Mentors and programmes.

More about our camps: Our top priority is the quality of our participants' educational and cultural experience. We strive to design programmes with a balance of life-coaching, academic lessons and cultural experience, including day trips to nearby cities in the UK. We also unique in providing truly Cambridge experience, with all the Management and Mentors being current students/alumni of Cambridge and Cambridge-style lectures, supervisions, activities such as formal dinner, punting, and graduation.

We are currently recruiting for the following positions:

Mentor

Job description: You will work with other Mentors to design and lead activities and lessons in a 2 or 3 week summer camp in Cambridge. You will be given freedom to edit existing activities and lessons from last year or creatively design new ones. For your chosen lessons and activities, you will also be responsible for preparing other Mentors for the sessions. You will interact closely with the students and report their feedback at daily meetings.

Skills required: You should be a current student or a recent graduate of Cambridge University. You should have a strong passion for education and be willing to spend much time with teenagers. Teamwork and organisational skills are essential, and teaching experience is also highly appreciated. Both native English speakers and mandarin speakers are welcome.

Secretary

Job description: As one of the three members in the management, you will help to keep the summer camps running smoothly. You will be in charge of the logistics, such as food, accommodation and transportation before and throughout the camps, as well as liaison between the management and teachers.

Skills required: You should be meticulous in nature, have good communication skills, and excellent planning and organisation skills.

Job starting date: early July

Duration: 2 or 3 weeks

Application deadline: 10th Feb 2016 Here is the link to the applicatino form: <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1ZcnW5CCCC4P4k4OdUX2FmqOO-FTrDY50rAhw5SpzwL9U/viewform>.

Welfare: Generous scholarship intended to help you fund your accommodation, and a bonus, depending on your specific role

Science Festival

Inspire children to enjoy science (and do some fun experiments...)

CHaOS is looking for volunteers to help out at "Crash, Bang, Squelch!" - a huge hands-on family science day on Saturday 12th March 2016 (the Saturday after lectures finish, at the New Museums Site). As part of the Cambridge Science Festival we'll be running experiments to explain the science behind everyday events to kids young and old, and we need scientists of all kinds (medics, engineers, natscis, compscis, mathmos, vets...) to help explain what's going on.

No experience necessary, enthusiasm helps, refreshments (and even free lunch) provided.

To sign up to help on the day go to: <http://www.chaossience.org.uk/demonstrator/cbs2016>

Watch an Opera

Britten's A Midsummer Night's Dream Opera

Oberon walks out onto the street. He takes a drag on his cigarette. His eye liner has smudged a little...

Britten's masterful operatic adaptation of the Shakespearian classic is brought into a contemporary urban setting in this brand new production. Specifically created for the West Road stage, this is the Cambridge University Opera Society's biggest show of the year, featuring a cast showcasing the highest talent of singers within the University on the cusp of professional careers.

This will be an extraordinary production.

Cambridge Humanities Review

In the words of celebrated writer Robert Macfarlane: 'The CHR is a very impressive young magazine, distinguished by me for its combination of intellectual seriousness, adventure and diversity'. We're currently recruiting new team members, so if you want to join us, especially in developing our programme of events, website, social media and sponsorship, e-mail camhumanities@gmail.com

Issue 10 of the CHR, covering topics as diverse as the music of Lana Del Rey, the poetry of J.H. Prynne, and the letters of Hugh Trevor-Roper, is currently on sale at Kings News newsagents, King's Parade for £2.50. To buy a £5 year student subscription, with issues 10-12 delivered to your college, visit: www.cambridgereview.weebly.com/buy-the-chr.html

Music

Jesus College Chapel

Cambridge University Opera Society: 'Short stories', Saturday 6th February, 8pm

Jesus College Music Society is delighted to be working in collaboration with CUOS to present an exciting and daring project: three new chamber operas by student composers, performed in fully-staged productions in the beautiful and atmospheric setting of Jesus Chapel.

Featuring Stephen Bick's A Good Man is Hard to Find, Owain Park's The Snow Child, and Bertie Baigent's The Nightingale and the Rose, this production presents operatic versions of short stories by Flannery O'Connor, Angela Carter, and Oscar Wilde. The relationship between literature and music lies at the heart of the production, and permeates its every aspect. Love, revenge, sacrifice, and human waste are key themes of what promises to be a beautiful yet challenging production.

Performed by some of Cambridge's finest singers and players, directed by Gareth Matthey, and conducted by Bertie Baigent.

Tickets £7, £5 (students); available on the door, or jcms-recitals@jesus.cam.ac.uk

'A Forqueray Portrait': Justin Taylor, harpsichord, Saturday 13 February, 8pm

The French harpsichordist Justin Taylor, winner of the Bruges Harpsichord Competition 2015, performs on the celebrated Bruce Kennedy double-manual harpsichord after a 1728 instrument by Christian Zell, drawing a compelling portrait of Antoine Forqueray with a series of pieces by, and in homage to, the eighteenth-century French composer. Part of the Piccola Accademia Montisi Jesus College series.

Tickets £5 (£2 students) available on the door, or reserve in advance on 01223 339699 or choir@jesus.cam.ac.uk

The David Crighton Concert, Sunday 21st February, 8.30pm

Join the Jesus College Music Society Orchestra for their termly concert as they perform some orchestral favourites including Mozart's Overture to La Clemenza di Tito, Schubert's Rosamunde and Mendelssohn's exquisite Violin Concerto, starring third-year violinist Joseph Swartzentruber.

Tickets £4, £2 (students), £1 (Jesusans), which include interval refreshments; available on the door or up to a week in advance from the Porters' Lodge.

Entertainment

Annie Hall

Saturday 13th February – 9pm

Join us on Saturday for a special screening on Annie Hall, as voted for by you!

Comedian Alvy Singer (Woody Allen) examines the rise and fall of his relationship with struggling nightclub singer Annie Hall (Diane Keaton). Speaking directly to the audience in front of a bare background, Singer reflects briefly on his childhood and his early adult years before settling in to tell the story of how he and Annie met, fell in love, and struggled with the obstacles of modern romance, mixing surreal fantasy sequences with small moments of emotional drama.

Tickets are £4 on the door.
