Ethnic Minorities Officer

Danielle:

- Fitz is a diverse college
 - She wants to celebrate ethnic differences, and help people feel more comfortable in their identity and find people similar to them
- Keep updated on CUSU BME, websites, forums, events, articles (she's even written one about her experiences that was published in the HSPS magazine) → so much that people can get involved in that she'd like to make people aware of
- Organise events with other colleges to include/celebrate ethnic minorities
- Feels that she'd be good at the role because:
 - She studies social anthropology, which is concerned with ethnic minorities/social issues
 - Also very approachable, likes talking to people, listens to concerns
- Question: what kind of events would you run to celebrate diversity?
 - Previous ethnic minorities officer was talking about doing a formal, so maybe do that
 - Carry on work with SOE to encourage ethnic minorities into subjects like law
