Meeting/committee updates

- Ents: no Fitz Sessions this term.
- Academic: Education committee. Big Cambridge Survey: Fitz responses in Senior Tutor termly information email or in President's newsletter? Bar-TV room as casual workspace if bar to become more 'barlike' with jukebox-Tea/Coffee machines, tables. Possibly an Easter term arrangement, but upstairs rooms become available and Wilson Court rooms can be booked so less need. No plans for a projector in the bar.
- Ethical: sold-out Fairtrade formal and successful documentary night. Quiz night coming up. Fitz off still work in progress.
- Communications: Stash to be paid for by ents money from last year.
- Welfare: Last yoga session cancelled. Girton Pool not usable for Fitz students- possibly an informal scheme for Fitz students to accompany Girton students. International Mentoring Scheme proposed.
- LGBT+: LGBT Panel success. Hill College Formal also well attended.
- BME: BME article for Goat Post. Formal upcoming.
- T&A: BME fund-proposes using money from telephone campaign. Islamic Soc access day to be largely organised by soc. Discount for Fitz Winter Ball tickets for bursary receivers proposed-Hall Committee decision rather than college (Hughes Hall and Wolfson do this). Presentation Training not well attended.
- Gym: Equipment arriving, including informative posters. Circuit classes not attended- future classes more time flexible. Womens' Hours-looking for statistics of when people use gym to design hours around. Survey results released to no backlash. Religious factor in Womens' Hours not put in report-no one come forward to suggest this as a personal issue.
- Treasurer: Budget approved by JMA. Card reader also approved. JCR refund process taking longer than expected.
- VP: Freshers' Housing Budget done Medwards Rep for Cindies/Life tickets to be added to Fitz Group.
- President: Rents approved. More laundry tokens and collections.

CUSU

- Disaffiliation from CUSU suggested. Possibility of continuing to receive welfare provisions despite disaffiliation. CUSU 'militant' on the strikes.
- Cambridge Refugee Scholarship campaign-59 other unis do this, some JCRs endorse it.
- LGBT+ rights uniformised across colleges.
